   <h3>Education</h3>
    <P>Eager to join his five school-going older brothers, Subhas entered the Baptist Mission's Protestant European School in Cuttack in January 1902.
    In 1909 the 12-year-old Subhas Bose followed his five brothers to the Ravenshaw Collegiate School in Cuttak.
    In 1912, he secured the second position in the matriculation examination conducted under the auspices of the University of Calcutta.</P>

    <P>Subhas Bose followed his five brothers again 1913 to Presidency College, Calcutta, the historic and traditional college for Bengal's upper-caste Hindu men.He chose to study philosophy, his readings including Kant, Hegel, Bergson and other Western philosophers.
    After expelled from the college and rusticated from University of Calcutta for participated in an incident involving Professor Oaten he joined Scottish Church College, receiving his B.A. in 1918 in the First Class with honors in philosophy, placing second among all philosophy
    students in Calcutta University.</P>

   At his father's urging, Subhas Bose agreed to travel to England to prepare and appear for the Indian Civil Services (ICS) examination.There were six vacancies in the ICS. Subhas Bose took the open competitive exam for them in August 1920 and was placed fourth.In April 1921, Subhas Bose made his decision firm not to take the final examination for the ICS.

    On April 22, 1921, he wrote to the Secretary of State for India, Edwin Montagu, stating, "I wish to have my name removed from the list of probationers in the Indian Civil Service."

    For some time before Subhas Bose had been in touch with C. R. Das, a lawyer who had risen to the helm of politics in Bengal; Das encouraged Subhas to return to Calcutta.
    With the ICS decision now firmly behind him, Subhas Bose took his Cambridge B.A. Final examinations half-heartedly, passing, but being placed in the Third Class.
    He prepared to sail for India in June 1921, electing for a fellow Indian student to pick up his diploma.

   <h3>Achievements</h3>

    1. Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose is a brilliant student since childhood, Bose excelled at his studies attaining an overall second position in the matriculation examination and he had secured 4th rank in the India civil services (ICS)exam.

    2. Bose also rose to the position of the editor for the newspaper, 'Forward', founded by Chittaranjan Das and qualified to the post of the CEO of Calcutta Municipal Corporation.

    3. In 1934 Subhash Chandra Bose and Jawaharlal Nehru founded the Congress socialist party within the Indian National Congress.

    4. Subhash Chandra Bose became the President of Haripur convention of Indian National Congress with the support of Mahatma Gandhi.

    5. Over the years, Bose had gained so much of popularity that he became a leader of national stature.
Also,
    the popularity and admiration won him a nomination as a Congress President.

    6. After Bose went into hiding in Japan, he established the Indian Independence League in 1942 and later handed over the command to Subhash Chandra Bose, it came to be known as the Indian National Army or the Azad Hind Fauj.

            7. With Netaji as the Chief Commander of the Azad Hind Fauj, the army proceeded towards India to liberate the country from the British Raj.
            En-route it freed the Andaman and Nicobar Islands and named the two islands as Swaraj and Shaheed.
Rangoon became the new base camp for the army.

            8. With Subhash Chandra Bose's first commitment at the Burma front, the army fought a competitive battle against the British and finally managed to hoist the Indian national flag on the grounds of Imphal, Manipur.

          <h3>Death</h3>
